The following options are available in International Tennis. Options are selected by pressing the SPACE bar to move to the option, pressing ENTER to access the game set up, and pressing SPACE again to scroll through the secondary options:

RACKET ICON

Singles or Doubles matches against a variety of computer and human opponents or team members.

CUP ICON

Select between single match play or Tournament Competition. Match Lengths can be chosen as either three or five sets.

COURT ICON

Various courts are available, each with their own particular handling characteristics:

Grass Court which absorbs some of the ball bounce

Clay Court for professionals with poor ball bounce

Asphalt for beginners where the ball bounces high

ARM ICON

This option is used to select the capability levels of computer match opponents.

JOYSTICK ICON

Both player one and player two are able to pick their preferred playing method from the options presented to them.

BALL AND RACKET ICON

Play game with selected options in position.

PLAYING TENNIS

International Tennis is played to full Lawn Tennis Association rules, and the game is scored and governed by this legislation. All referee and line judge decisions are final.

When your player has service, he can be moved to the correct position on the base line. Pressing Fire throws the ball into the air, and pressing Fire again makes the player begin his swing for the ball. If the ball is either too high or too low when the player begins his swing he will miss the ball.

During a game, the player can be positioned anywhere on his side of the court by movement of the joystick. Pressing Fire when the ball is in the near vicinity of the player executes a forehand or backhand shot according to the ball's position in relation to the player.

The direction of the ball is determined by the timing of your swing and any spin that you choose to add to the ball. The following joystick positions affect ball movements:

RIGHT

Spins ball to the right

LEFT

Spins ball to the left

JOYSTICK TOWARDS NET

Powers up the ball

JOYSTICK AWAY FROM NET

Drop shots the ball

Different Joystick and Fire button combinations will enable the player to develop their own repertoire of match winning shots. These shots will change according to the Hard, Lawn or Clay playing surface selected.

Current Match scores are registered on the scoreboard at the rear of the playing screen.
